

MARK T. BARCLAY'S

"I PREDICT" 2006

"Things will get fixed in '06."

I predict that...

1) . . . 2006 will be a year to get fixed. The damages done in the year of judgment (2005) and of living in the last days will begin to be repaired.

2) . . . in 2006 many Christians who were thinking that the blessings of God are automatic (just because we call ourselves Christians) will come to a great realization that they are not and will return to the basic disciplines and practices of the Word.

3) . . . in 2006 we will be given many special opportunities to win the souls of both strangers and loved ones. We must seize this special, divine opportunity.

4) . . . though the season for seeker-sensitive churches is not quite over, many will break away from their shallowness, entertainment, and attractions and will turn to churches that provide a deeper spiritual walk, a move of the Spirit, and more Bible teachings.

5) . . . the new craze for seeker sensitivity will begin to unravel as many attendees of these churches will realize how dry they are and how little miraculous, Holy Ghost help they are getting.

6) . . . those who truly chase God and press into His presence will be revived like never before. Revival is not sovereign—it is God's response to our crying out to Him.

7) . . . in 2006 being a Christian is going to become so precise (even micro-tuned) that if we are going to beat the evil of the day, we will have to be very, very accurate and live according to His book more than we have ever lived, thought, or talked before.

8) . . . evil spirits, invisible and ferocious, will have their way with many Christians because they will not get serious about their prayer life and the purity of their faith walk. Many will be but modern "sons of Sceva" because they will exercise the name of Jesus but not have the relationship with Christ to back it up.

9) . . . spiritual warfare will be a must for even the average soldier of the cross as we realize that our lack of it in 2005 made us weak and vulnerable.

10) . . . a new, fresh awareness and discernment and even the "gift" of discerning of spirits will be imparted to God's anointed leaders and pastors. This will bring a new caliber of leadership and new awareness to the realm of the supernatural.

THEME VERSE for 2006

"A prudent person foresees the danger ahead and takes precautions; the simpleton goes blindly on and suffers the consequences."

Proverbs 22:3 NLT

11) . . . unusual and weird events will change the course and character of our great nation, America. Our dear neighbors in Canada will lead the race to an anti-Christ, anti-biblical lifestyle through their legislation.

12) . . . internationally we have not seen the end of Korea's belligerence or China's sneaky form of aggression. Iran will be as difficult as ever to deal with, but the world will confront them. Israel's borders will continue to be nibbled at, and her predicted time of peace will not yet be. France and friends will continue to pay a dear price for their compromise.

13) . . . terrorist attacks will continue in the most unusual places, and the war on terror will rage on. America will lose interest in one area but totally saturate herself in another. More and more we will see the "day of Noah" and the "day of Lot" come upon us as the day of the coming of the Son of Man overtakes us. We must be ready for His appearing!

14) . . . fear of world disasters, evil, and terrorism will dictate how many people live, but the righteous shall live by faith and overcome that old dragon by the name of Jesus, the word of our testimony, and loving not our own lives.

15) . . . in 2006 God will talk to the men of the camp with a challenge to provide more leadership to their families and to step up to the plate and initiate service to the King of Glory.

16) . . . in 2006 God will speak to the women of the camp to provide more encouragement to their families and to add an element of stability and peace like never before.

17) . . . true pastors will constantly challenge their flocks to be disciples and not just "attendees," and true believers will lay aside the party spirit and pay the dear price to be a disciple of Jesus Christ.

18) . . . the prosperity teachings will stay prominent, but there will be a great divide for those who exaggerate them and for the greedy—even judgment for some. Some will usher in shame to the body of Christ.

19) . . . "Minister Moses" will be in the presence of the Lord, getting the Word and will of God for His people, while "Minister Aaron" will be partying with the people and rejoicing over the song, dance, and offering!

20) . . . if you do not stand strong in faith, you will not stand at all (Is. 7:9 NIV).
